

March 3, 1917.—7:45 P.M. René Janssens has been. Back from Holland.... He had sensational news, to the effect that a plot has been discovered in America, evidenced by documents implicating Zimmermann, by which the German Government was instigating revolution in Mexico and offering Mexico three states of the Union—Texas and two others. Janssen didn't know which, though it is easy to imagine. That the country is aflame, all parties standing solidly by the President, even Bryan, ready for war!
